Happy Holidays!

'Tis the season to be partying—and SODZ does it well! We started off with the Captivator Party at Hoster's on Thursday night. Victor and Walter—great job! We enjoyed the beer, food, and entertainment. The event was well attended by SODZ.

Next up on the party itinerary is the SODZ Christmas Party. At last month's meeting, there were requests to move the party to the weekend, so it will be held on Saturday, December 11, at 7 p.m., at the Katona place. This year I will be roasting a turkey breast, so bring an appetizer or dish to complement the entrée (desserts are always welcome, too).

Besides your beer, you might want to bring darts and a swimsuit or shorts to the party. The dartboard will be set up in the basement, and the hot tub is available for soaking bodies (not grains, malt extract, or hops).

Jon Woodman and Cheryl Duda plan to stop in at the party to say goodbye to everyone. Jon has just accepted a new job in Anchorage, Alaska, and will be leaving December 19 to get settled in their igloo. Cheryl will join him a month later. We wish them well.

Other member news—Geoff Larsen has just moved into his new condo in Cambridge, Mass. He would love to hear from you, so call or email me to get his new address and phone number.

Great Lakes Brewing Company sent me a supply of their recent newsletter. We will have them available at the party so you can read about their new tap room and other GLBC news.

4Winds Specialty Tours is organizing a Beer and Brewery Barge Tour of Belgium & Holland. Three tour dates are offered: April 15-22, September 9-16, and September 16-23, 2000. The land-only price is $1,075 per person double occupancy; airfare is extra. For more information, go to <http://www.4windstour.com>. I also have a brochure and letter from the travel company with some details.

At the last meeting, there was a suggestion to change our regular meeting night to a Friday. There are many thoughts on making such a change, so please come to the January meeting when the issue will be discussed. A vote on whether to change the meeting night would occur in February, and the outcome of the vote would take effect in March.

The January meeting will be held at Barley's Smokehouse on Thursday, January 13. We will focus on tasting everyone's beers, rather than having a formal presentation; so please bring potential new members. We thank Barley's Smokehouse for their hospitality in providing us with a meeting room.
